Will ecabs be electric?

Maltese ride-hailing company eCabs, which competes locally with Uber and Bolt, plans to electrify its fleet of vehicles by next year. "We believe that the future is electric," says Matthew Bezzina, the company's chief executive. The majority of eCabs' drivers, however, use their own cars, and need some persuading to switch to EVs, Bezzina says.

Does Valletta need a modern-day urban planner?

In fact, while Valletta has its challenges, the ingenious urban planning undertaken by the Knights of St John five centuries ago continues to offer lessons that Malta's modern-day planners would do well to heed.

What are the requirements for scrapping an electric vehicle?

Destruction Certificates issued must be dated 2022 or 2023. NOTE 5: The vehicle to be scrapped must be registered on the applicant's name on the date of registration of the new Electric Vehicle unless it is scrapped and deregistered before such date.
